Length: 102 min.

Honours: 14 wins & 3 nominations

Matty is a 41-year old troubled married woman. Or, as she puts it, her husband is going through a midlife crisis, her oldest daughter is in puberty, her youngest daughter thinks she's in puberty and her son can't find his way into puberty. And, after an accident when leaving the parking lot of the local supermarket, her car needs a repair. To her surprise and disbelief, the 29-year old driver whose truck she hits takes an interest in her.

The Multicultural Cinema Club

The Multicultural Cinema Club (MCC) was established in December 2006 to create a culture of cinema within Waterloo region by screening films, hosting discussions, creating artistic works, providing affordable equipment rentals, and encouraging community film-making.

MCC founder, Azam Fouk Aladeh is a professional filmmaker/producer. The Multicultural Cinema Club is not only for New Canadians. It is an open concept for anyone interested in artistic community projects.
